Re: Jones v. City of New York
Docket No. 17 CV 4894 (AT) (KP)

Dear Judge Torres:

I am an Assistant Corporation Counsel in the office of the Hon. Sylvia O. Hind-Radix, Corporation Counsel of the City of New York, attorney for Defendant in the above-referenced action. I write to request an extension of time to submit alterations to the joint pretrial order pursuant to the Court's March 4, 2022 and April 8, 2022 Orders (see ECF Dkt. Nos. 171 and 172), from today, April 29, 2022 to May 4, 2022. I requested Plaintiff's consent to this request, but have not yet received a response.

Defendant apologizes to the Court for this belated request, however, Defendant requests this extension because I did not receive a draft of Plaintiff's proposed alterations to the joint pretrial order until this morning. The parties had discussed a timeline for reviewing proposed edits. However, due to an apparent failure of technology, I never received the draft which Plaintiff's counsel sent in the afternoon on Wednesday April 27, 2022. After following up on Thursday April 28, 2022 about the status of the draft, I was informed Thursday evening that it was previously sent on Wednesday. I was not able to access the draft until this morning. Plaintiff has made significant alterations to the joint pretrial order, adding approximately 43 new exhibits and a new unidentified witness. I, therefore, require additional time to review Plaintiff's alterations, make appropriate responses to the alterations, and to include Defendant's alterations.

Accordingly, Defendant requests a brief extension of time to submit the joint pretrial order to May 4, 2021.

GRANTED.

SO ORDERED.

ANALISA TORRES
United States District Judge
